March Mailing Planned For Annual Opening Of Alumni Fund Appeal

The second annual Alumni Fund Appeal will get underway early next month with a mailing to remind all alumni of their undoubted good intentions.

Fr. John Lefko, chairman of the St. Joseph's College Foundation, will again serve as director of the Appeal.

"We were well pleased last year with the results of our first attempt," says Fr. Lefko. "A total of 23 per cent of our alumni participated, giving more than $14,000. We feel sure that the same 733 men will support the cause again this year—but we are also anxious to bring the other 77 per cent into the fold."

In pointing out the need for participation of all alumni, on no matter what scale, Fr. Lefko uses a quotation from Charles W. Eliot, who was president emeritus of Harvard at the time: "It is, of course, largely by the extent of the support accorded to a college by its own graduates that the world judges of the right of that college to seek cooperation of others in planning for the future. An institution that cannot rally to its financial assistance the men who have taken its degrees and whose diploma is their passport into the world, is in a poor position to ask assistance from any others. It is not merely what the alumni give; it is the fact that they do give that is of supreme importance."

And, more recently, the president of the Council for Financial Aid to Education wrote: "... Systematic habitual alumni giving

Communion Breakfast Scheduled for April 29 In 19 Midwest Towns

Tentative plans are in the making for the biggest St. Joseph's Communion Breakfast ever. April 29 has been set as the date for the third annual affair, to be held this year in 19 midwestern localities.

The later date was chosen for two reasons. First, the Church is putting great emphasis on the new feast day of "St. Joseph the Worker," to be celebrated on May 1 each year. It is therefore considered appropriate that alumni of St. Joseph's College should honor their patron as near that date as possible.

A second good reason for the later date is the prospect for better weather than in March, probably making possible a larger attendance.

Last year, on March 20, a total of 714 alumni and guests attended the Breakfast in 22 different centers.

The next issue of Contact, as well as personal notices wherever possible, will inform alumni of specific plans for the Breakfast in their area.

At present, plans call for gatherings in the following cities: Canton, Ohio; Chicago (north) and Chicago (south); Cincinnati, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio; Coldwater, Ohio; Dayton, Ohio; Detroit, Mich.; Evansville, Ind.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Gary, Ind.; Glandorf, Ohio; Hammond, Ind.; Indianapolis, Ind.; Kankakee, Ill.; Louisville, Ky.; Collegeville, Ind.; St. Louis, Mo.; and South Bend, Ind.

Stanley Arnold, '21, Now Serving Term In California Senate

St. Joseph's College supplies material for many a worthy endeavor, among which can now be counted the Legislature of the State of California!

Senator Arnold got a fairly late start in his legal career, but it must have been a good one. It was not until 1945, at the age of 42, that he entered the Hastings College of the Law, of the University of California, as a

. I was separated from the Army in June of 1955, and on the same day as my separation, a son (Rudolph III) was born to me and my wife Betty.

At the present time I am working for the Probation Office of the Jefferson County Juvenile Court as a Probation officer. Also I am taking some courses at the University of Louisville Kent School of Social Work, working on my Master's degree in Social Work.

Needless to say, I enjoy CONTACT very much and I hope, now that you have my new address, you'll continue to send it to me.

. I finished my one year at St. Joe's in June 1942 . . . enrolled on sort of a part-time basis at the University of Louisville in July '44, and just barely finished two trimesters when my (draft) turn came, in March '45. After my Army time was completed, I enrolled in the first available class at the Kentucky School of Embalming, in Feb. '47, as my father (owner of the Barrett Funeral Home) had been ill for some time, and it was expedient that I complete the required work to obtain my Funeral Director and Embalmer licenses as soon as possible.

I finished at the School the following November, but because of a technicality regarding my apprenticeship registration, it was another two years before I was allowed to take examinations for licenses. However, under supervision of licensed personnel, I was able, legally, to practice in the interim. During that time I continued work toward a B.S. degree in Biology at the University of Louisville. In Sept. '49, my father died; the next January I received my licenses and took on a greater work load, thereby reducing the amount of education that I was able to absorb.

I gave up the academic ghost in June '51, and—or because—two weeks later I married Anna Mae Dentinger. That left me about 20 hours short of a degree. As soon as my son, aged five weeks, is able to operate the Funeral Home by himself, possibly I shall return to St. Joe and start all over. In any case, I have as yet no A.B. or B.S., let alone an M.D. or Ph.D. I don't think the M.D. would work in too well with the funeral home anyway, or vice-versa. My present status is manager of the Funeral Home for my mother, the owner.

CONTACT reaches me regularly at my home I appreciate being kept on the rolls, and thoroughly enjoy each issue of CONTACT.

Best wishes to the good Fathers and Brothers—the Sisters over in the kitchen, too

Change of G. E. Rules Widens Alumni Giving

Changes in rules of the General Electric "Corporate Alumnus Program" will now permit non-graduate alumni of colleges to be matched dollar-for-dollar in their giving, according to information recently received from the company.

Last year when the program was established, the Fund agreed to match contributions up to $1,000 by employees of General Electric to the colleges and universities from which they held degrees. The new provision interprets "alumnus" differently; the Fund will match gifts made to any college at which an employee was in attendance one year or more.

First Phase Completed In Kitchen Remodeling

The first phase in an estimated $30,000 remodeling project in the college kitchen was completed over the Christmas holidays. The remaining work will be completed in time for summer use, according to Fr. John Sheehan.

A new dishroom is being constructed at the former location of the dietician's office. Electric lines and steam pipes for the new dishroom have already been lowered.

Fred Schmid of Los Angeles is the architect.

Peter Schumacher and Sons, Inc., of Mishawaka will be in charge of tearing down the old walls and constructing new ones. This work is scheduled for completion by the middle of March.

Final step in the remodeling will be the installation of a completely new and modern dishwashing system by the National China and Equipment Corporation of Marion, Ind.

Road Losses Drop St. Joseph's From First to Fourth Spot in ICC

(By DICK BODNEY, '58)

Feb. 13—The inability to win away from home has caused St. Joseph's cage squad to drop from first place in the Indiana Collegiate Conference to the number four spot in a little over a month.

Evansville (8-2) is leading the conference with Valparaiso (7-3) second and Butler (5-4) third. Behind St. Joe (4-4) is DePauw (4-5) in fifth place, Indiana State (3-5) in sixth, and Ball State (3-6) in the cellar.

On Jan 17, St. Joe traveled to Muncie to take on Ball State and absorbed a 106-67 lacing at the hands of the Cardinals' red-hot quintet that had an incredible shooting average of .507.

High point man for the Pumas was Sophomore Greg Jancich who collected 16 points on four baskets and eight charity tosses.

St. Joe returned home on Jan. 19 and extended their home winning streak to seven as they hammered hapless Marian College of Indianapolis 98-63.

The outcome of the game was never in doubt as the Pumas piled up an early lead and kept increasing it until the final gun. Freshman Bill Lewis was high for St. Joe with nine baskets for 18 points.

The "away-game jinx" caught up with the Pumas again on Feb. 1, when they fell before Indiana State 82-70 at Terre Haute.

State's big center, Sam Richardson, proved too much for St. Joe as he won the scoring honors for the night with 24 points. Greg Jancich's 12 markers led all Puma point-getters.

On Feb. 3, St. Joe won their first road game of the season when they downed Marian College 89-67 at Indianapolis. The Pumas again led all the way with Coach Dale O'Connell substituting throughout the game.

Dan Fenker led St. Joe in scoring, with 15 points registered on six field goals and 3 free throws.

The Pumas made it eight in a row at home the following night when they trampled St. Norbert's College of West De Pere, Wis., 89-73 in one of St. Joe's most impressive showings of the campaign.

After a hard-fought first half, which found St. Joe leading by the narrow margin of 39-37, the Pumas cut loose with a murderous barrage that wilted St. Norbert's defense and turned what looked like a tight game into a rout.

Freshman Dan Rogavich led the Pumas in scoring with 7 field goals and 9 free throws for 23 points.

On Jan. 8, the Pumas traveled to Evansville to tackle the league-leading Evansville Aces, and came out on the short end of an 89-70 score.

Dan Rogavich was high for St. Joe with 27 points.

Three nights later, the Pumas made a return trip to Indianapolis and lost a heartbreaking 69-67 decision to Indiana Central. Rogavich was again the leading scorer for St. Joe with 18 points.

Mardi Gras Success Despite Heavy Snow

Though the weather held down the attendance, it could not dampen the enthusiasm of those that attended the 1956 Mardi Gras dance held at St. Joseph's on Feb. 11.

Heavy snow cut the attendance approximately 25 per cent, but those attending were well satisfied with the performance of Johnny Lane and his Dixieland Band and the guest artist, trombonist George Brunis.

Decorations lending a New Orleans atmosphere were created by senior Bob Pitt of St. Joseph, Mich. Frank Unger, a junior from Chicago, was chairman of the dance.

9-Game Grid Schedule Announced for Pumas

Nine football games have been slated for the 1956 Puma season, according to the schedule released by Fr. Joseph Smolar, athletic director. Three of the six consecutive conference games will be played at home.

Opening the season the first week of school, the Pumas will travel to Cincinnati for a game with Xavier University. It will be the first gridiron encounter of the two schools since 1940.

The schedule:

Sept. 15—Xavier	(there)
Sept. 22—Great Lakes	(here)
Sept. 29—DePauw	(here)
Oct. 6—Valparaiso	(there)
Oct. 13—Ind. State	(here)

Spanish Dancers To Appear at SJC

Jose Limon and his dance company, probably the best known and most popular of the exponents of modern dance, will bring to a close this year's concert series on Wednesday, Feb. 29.

Limon will be the final in a series of three presentations scheduled by Richard Kilmer of the College faculty. The group has appeared annually in such series as the Allied Arts Dance Series at the Chicago Civic Opera House and the Kaufmann Auditorium in New York City, and throughout the United States, Canada and Europe.

About 15 dancers will appear here with Limon.

Calumet Center Has Open House At Office, Studio

A new office and art studio for St. Joseph's College Calumet Center in East Chicago was officially blessed and opened Monday, Jan. 23.

The office and studio, actually a remodeled store building, are located at 4708 Indianapolis Blvd.

About 400 guests turned out at the new office for an open house which accompanied the ceremonies.

The guests were addressed by the Most Rev. Leo A. Pursley, '21, apostolic administrator of the Diocese of Ft. Wayne; Very Rev. Raphael H. Gross, president of St. Joseph's; and Rev. James I. Birkley, '38, director of the center, who read a citation paying tribute to those responsible for the new office.

Among those particularly cited were John Kaminsky, h'54, Steve Latta, h'54, Andrew Macnak, h'54, and John Bodney, h'54, all of Whiting.

Following the blessing of the new studio, Bishop Pursley was presented with a centennial edition of Rand McNally's Cosmopolitan World Atlas by C. M. Dubs, vice-president. Mr. Dubs is a member of the center's Advisory Board of Lay Trustees.

Other Board members attending were Timothy P. Galvin, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Burns, '26, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Endres and Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. McDonough. Mayor Edward C. Dowling of Hammond was also present.

Highlighting the interior of the office and studio is a new mural just completed by art students of the center. It portrays industrial forms of the Calumet Region, weaving them in an abstract pattern of unusual forms and colors. The figure of St. Joseph rises from the middle of the work.

The mural was a special project of a class taught by Clarence E. Giese, '50. Other student work was also exhibited, revealing a wide range of individuality and creativeness.

James Beane Resigns Position; Had Excellent Record at St. Joe

James T. Beane, '49, has resigned his St. Joseph's College post as baseball coach, director of intramural athletics and assistant professor of Physical Education. His resignation effective at the close of last semester, Mr. Beane plans to enter the industrial field.

Baseball coaching this spring will be done by Robert Jauron, head football coach. Fr. Daniel Schaefer, dean of men, will supervise the intramural program for the rest of this year, and Mr. Beane's Physical Education classes have been divided among other members of the department.

Records at SJC

Mr. Beane has been a member of the St. Joe faculty since the fall of 1951, and had served as baseball coach for four years. Except for the first season, his teams established excellent records for themselves, winning the I.C.C. championship in 1954, and second place in both 1953 and 1955.

Their over-all season records were 12 wins and four losses in 1955, 14 wins and three losses in 1954, and 14 wins and two losses in 1953. Totals for the four years were 41 wins, 14 losses and one tie.

Mr. Beane was named I.C.C. Coach of the Year in 1954, during which season his team, in winning the championship, also established seven new conference records and tied two others.

JIM BEANE

Colorful Sports Career

After graduation from Evansville Memorial High School, where he played basketball on a state Catholic parochial championship team, he entered St. Joseph's College in 1940. At Collegeville, as Gil Hodges' team-mate, Mr. Beane pitched one season for the varsity baseball team.

Before his graduation from college in 1949, however, he had completed a tour of duty in the U. S. Navy, where he played ball and was active in the physical education programs under Gene Tunney, and had spent two years in minor league baseball with Brooklyn Dodgers farm clubs. He pitched for Danville in the Three-Eye League, for Zanesville in the Ohio State League, for Abilene in the West Texas-New Mexico League, and for Ballanger in the Longhorn League.

After graduation at St. Joseph's, Mr. Beane did his graduate work at Indiana University, where in 1951 he won his Master's degree in Physical Education and Director degree in Health and Safety.

Since joining the SJC faculty, he has also assisted frequently with both football and basketball coaching.

At present, Mr. Beane's future plans are not entirely definite.

Institutional Fund Raising Workshop to Be Held For Second Year on Campus at St. Joseph's

A second annual "Workshop in Catholic Institutional Fund Raising" is scheduled to be held on the St. Joseph's campus from June 18 through June 21 this summer.

Following the noteworthy success of last year's first attempt at such an institute, this year's plans are kindling widespread interest among Catholic educators and administrators of hospitals, dioceses and religious communities. Fr. John Lefko, chairman of the St. Joseph's College Foundation, is again the organizer and director of the Workshop.

The Workshop last year attracted 78 priests, brothers, sisters and laypeople from eleven states. Its proceedings are being published in serial form currently in the magazine Church Property Administration, beginning with the Nov.-Dec. 1955 edition.

Fr. Lefko has announced a few minor changes in the general format of the institute. The only general session of all enrollees will open the Workshop on Monday night, June 18. After that, meetings will be held by four different groups—those interested in fund raising for the (1) parish, (2) colleges, (3) hospitals, and (4) dioceses and religious communities.

Three long-established and respected professional fund raising firms will have their representatives on hand to conduct the various seminars. Community Counseling, Inc., of New York City, will have charge of "parish" discussions; American City Bureau, Inc., of Chicago, will conduct the seminars on colleges and hospitals; and Richard Finn and Associates, of Kansas City, will lead the discussions for representatives of dioceses and religious communities.

Total registration fee, including room and board, is $25.00. Reservations may be made by writing to Fr. John Lefko, C.P.P.S., Collegeville, Ind.

good old St. Joe's . . .

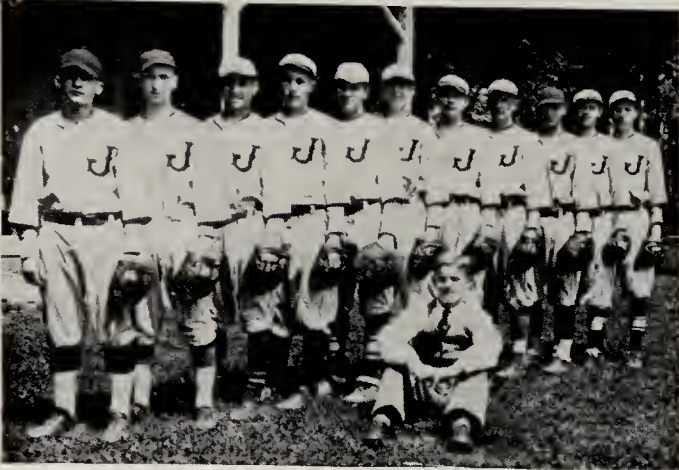

A couple of months ago there was a request in CONTACT for George Bartlett's address. In case nobody else sent it to you, he resides at 3314 Trinity Road.

Also, in a recent issue of CONTACT you carried a picture of a man with a house full of children over the caption, "Can You Top This." While I appreciate the man's efforts, I must confess that he is, by comparison, a rank amateur. My "tribe" consists of seven boys and seven girls, ranging in age from 11 months to 17 years. Both the local papers and the Associated Press gave us quite a spread last May. Maybe some of you good folks saw it without recognizing the fair name of Linehan, because it was misspelled in about half the clippings I received.

Keep my name on your mailing list and, if you have the patience of Job, you may look forward to the "couple of bucks" I will eventually be able to send you.

Yours truly,
M. E. "Mike" Linehan ('31)

Class of '31 to Celebrate Silver Anniversary

The SJC Class of '31 is about to reach another milestone—the 25th anniversary of graduation! A full-scale reunion is in order, and the three class members still on campus have been tossing the idea around. Fathers Cletus Kern and Boniface Dreiling, and Brother Louis Stock have tentatively chosen the week-end of June 16-17 as the best time for the greatest number.

That is Fathers Day week-end, but greater handicaps seem to plague most other dates. The laymen involved will be invited, urged, to bring their families anyway—so what better place to spend Fathers Day than at the old Alma Mater!

More definite information later. Meanwhile, let's talk it up!

Mothers Club Plans Card Party in Chicago

The Merchandise Mart in Chicago will be the site of the Mothers Club annual card party on April 27. The Fathers Club intends to "give away" a 1956 Ford at this party.

The party was discussed at a recent meeting at which Salvatore Pupo, a member of the education department at St. Joseph's, addressed the parents. He pointed out the various special helps that St. Joseph's offers to students experiencing difficulties in their studies.

At the same meeting, a member of a local Selective Service board answered questions concerning the draft and how it affects college students.

"Angry Men" for C. P. Production

Twelve Angry Men, the next presentation of the Columbian Players, will be given on the nights of March 5 and 6.

The drama, written by Reginald Rose, received the coveted television "Emmy Award" for its author.

Essentially, it is the study of the personalities of 12 jurors faced with the tremendous problem: Whether to sentence a young boy to the electric chair on a seemingly irrefutable testimony given during the trial, or to decide that the evidence is not convincing, and let him go free.

Heading the cast are Jack Carlson, Ed Hebda and Charles Vietzen. Carlson and Hebda are from Chicago and Vietzen is from Oak Park, Ill. Mr. Ralph Capuccilli is directing the play.

Fund Appeal

may often be the means of inspiring much larger giving by others. Alumni giving, in a sense the "seed money" of business giving, is at the heart of the fund-raising prospect of each college and university which is looking toward the future."

As in the last year's Fund Appeal, the 1956 Appeal will permit alumni donors to designate the purpose for which their gift is to be used. Although by far the most of last year's donations were made with no strings attached, a good number of the donors gave for a specific project. The same choices will be available this year.

IN 1929, at the time of high school graduation, the class looked like this, above. SEATED, left to right: J. Sheeran, F. Kienly; Fr. Ildephonse Rapp, moderator of the Newman Club, of which all were members; R. Boker (deceased), and J. Gibson. SECOND ROW: T. Clayton, F. Bishop, J. Szanislo, Larry Grownay, T. Rieman (deceased), A. Good Crowd Present At Thorne Hall Concert

Despite extremely bad weather, nearly 400 people attended the annual Thorne Hall concert presented by St. Joseph's College on Feb. 12.

Given on the downtown campus of Northwestern University in Chicago, the concert featured the college Glee Club, the Chorale of St. Francis College of Joliet, Ill., and the chorus from the St. Joseph's Extension in Hammond.

Fr. Lawrence Heiman of St. Joseph's directed the combined groups.

Tom Mahoney To Edit "Stuff"

Thomas F. Mahoney, a sophomore from Chicago, is the new editor of the campus newspaper, Stuff, according to Fr. James Hinton, moderator.

He succeeds James Station, also of Chicago, who resigned following the Feb. 8 edition of the paper. Station had held the job since September of 1954.

Mahoney, a graduate of Leo High School in Chicago, is an English-Journalism major. His name has frequently appeared on the Dean's List.
